	The annual Student Council food drive is underway and will continue thru Wednesday, December 8. Student Council members will be located in room 24 BEFORE school to collect non-perishable (canned food) items. Stop by on your way to class in the mornings to drop off your items. This room is located next to Ms. McCoy's room in the 5th & 6th grade hall. Any student who brings in at least 10 items will be recognized and earn a soda, so please make sure they write down your name. Let's do this BMS! Everyone join together to support our families who are in need in our community
